

University of Debrecen Ranking days

26-28 March 2019, Kenézy Villa

26 March 2019, Tuesday

8:30 – Registration

8:45 – Welcome

9:00 – Initiatives at the University of Debrecen

- Rankings overview, “expectations”
- Support programme for UD journals

10:30 – Coffee break

11:00 – Times Higher Education session (part I.)

What the data tells us

- History of the rankings and development over time
- Rankings and data in a global context
- Features of world-class universities
- High level global trends

12:00 – Lunch break

12:30 – Times Higher Education session (part II.)

Times Higher Education World University Ranking Background, Data Sources and High Level Methodology

- History of the rankings and development over time
- Data Sources – where does the information come from, definitions and time period
- Metrics and Pillars – detailed definitions of the 13 metrics that make up the 5 pillars
- How the overall table is built
- Inclusion criteria in world rankings, related tables and subjects

13:45 – Coffee break

14:00 – Times Higher Education session (part III.)

University of Debrecen's Performance

- In-depth, metric-level analysis of performance, benchmarked against domestic and international peers
- UD's overall performance compared with selected peers' performance
- UD's results in the subject rankings compared with those of the selected peers
- Changes in scores and data from previous years
- A high-level overview of UD's Academic Reputation Survey results
- Potential issues, recommendations and conclusions based on the data

15:00 – Closing

27 March 2019, Wednesday

8:45 – Registration & welcome

9:00 – QS (Quacquarelli Symonds) Comprehensive session (part I.)

A comprehensive session on the University's Global Engagement Strategy, including insights on international engagement, global visibility, reputation, and rankings strategy (global, regional, and subject rankings).

10:30 – Coffee break

11:00 – QS Global Engagement Implementation session (part I.)

A session on institutional Global Engagement Implementation with insight to the main findings based on the last visit in November 2018, including recommendations, good examples from other universities.

12:00 – Lunch break

12:30 – QS rankings performance analysis session (part I.)

A detailed rankings performance analysis session, inclusive of the newest subject rankings data.

13:45 – Coffee break

14:00 – QS rankings performance analysis session (part II.)

A detailed rankings performance analysis session, inclusive of the newest subject rankings data. Discussion.

15:00 – Closing

28 March 2019, Thursday

8:45 – Registration

9:00 – QS Global Engagement Implementation session (part II.)

A session focusing on the topics related to online marketing and visibility, including the content and management of the university website(s).

10:30 – Coffee break

11:00 – QS Global Engagement Implementation session (part III.)

A session focusing on the topics related to education and research.

12:00 – Lunch break

12:30 – QS Global Engagement Implementation session (part IV.)

A session focusing on the topics related to internationalization, including student and possibly staff recruitment.

14:00 – Closing