

Symposium

on the Occasion of Canada's 150th Anniversary of Confederation

Program:

11:00 Laczkó Tibor, Head of the Institute, Glant Tibor, Chair of the North American Department, welcome the participants

11:05 Her Excellency Isabelle Poupert, Ambassador of Canada, opens the symposium

11:20 Keynote address

Messamore, Barbara (University of the Fraser Valley B.C., Canada):

Confederation Myths: Reflections on the 150th Anniversary

11:40 Molnár, István (Károli Gáspár University):

The Building of the Constitution of Canada – Milestones from the Royal Proclamation to the BNAA

11:55 Fuglinszky, Ádám (Eötvös Loránd University):

Canadian Bilingualism – a Model for Europe?

12:10 Reception given by the Canadian Embassy and the North American Department (Room 119, Main Bldg.)

13:30 Kürtösi, Katalin (University of Szeged):

Emily Carr's Canadian Patriotism (Letters, Journals)

13:45 Molnár, Judit (University of Debrecen):

Canadian Confederation through the Poetic Eye(s)

14:00 Vígh, Árpád (University of Pécs):

Philippe Aubert Gaspé és a Kiegyezés ideológiája

14:15 Szaffkó, Péter (University of Debrecen):

1867-1967: Konföderáció és a modern kanadai színház születése

14:30 Takács, Attila (Eszterházy Károly University of Applied Sciences, Eger):

Inuit Knowledge on Climate Change

14:45 Espák, Gabriella (University of Debrecen):

About Mono-, Bi-, and Multiculturalism on the Occasion of Canadian Confederation 150

15:00 Venkovits, Balázs (University of Debrecen):

Hungarian Immigration to Canada: the 1920s

Closing

Canada

