

Tisztelettel meghívjuk a Komparatiztikai Műhely és a Néderlandisztika
Tanszéke programjára

HOLLAND IRODALOMTÖRTÉNET MAGYARUL

Kerekasztal beszélgetés angol nyelven

A beszélgetés moderátorai: Gera Judit, Réthelyi Orsolya

Program of the Workshop for Comparative Literary Studies

Workshop on the volume Reflections. A Literary History of The Low Countries from Hungarian Perspective written in Hungarian by colleagues of Dutch Studies departments at the University of Debrecen (DE), the Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church (KRE) and the Eötvös Loránd University Budapest (ELTE), in cooperation with other authors.

Participants: Jacqueline Bel (VU Amsterdam), Anikó Daróczi (KRE Budapest), Judit Gera (ELTE Budapest), Ton van Kalmthout (The Huygens Institute for the History of the Netherlands, Amsterdam), Gábor Pusztai (DE Debrecen), Orsolya Réthelyi (ELTE Budapest - The Huygens Institute for the History of the Netherlands, Amsterdam)

First session (moderator Judit Gera):

14.00-14.05: Welcome by Judit Gera

14.05-14.20: Orsolya Réthelyi: Cultural Transfer and Small Languages in Writing Histories of Literature. The Literatures of the Low Countries Reflected in Hungary

14.20 - 14.30: Jacqueline Bel and Ton van Kalmthout: feed-back on the presentation.

14.30 - 14.45: Public discussion of the presentation

Second session (moderator Orsolya Réthelyi):

14.45 - 14.55: Anikó Daróczi: " . . . Let the strings be heard to resound . . . "

How Hadewijch sounds in Middle Dutch and Hungarian

14.55 - 15.05: Judit Gera: Transnational Hungarology. Jolanta Jastrzębska, Netherlands literary scholar of Polish origin and authority on contemporary Hungarian literature

15.05 - 15.15: Jacqueline Bel and Ton van Kalmthout: feedback on the two presentations

15.15 - 15.30: Public discussion of the two presentations

15.30-15.35: End of workshop

Ideje: 2018. V. 9., 14 óra

Helye: DE Főépület, III. em. 303.

Az esemény Facebook oldala:

<https://www.facebook.com/events/168251053851762/>

Minden érdeklődőt szeretettel várunk!